

ZooU Bookmark

ZooU Bookmark

Study Guide:

- Prairie dogs have a lot to say! These little rodents yip, growl, whistle and bark to communicate and signal danger.
- Prairie dogs live in underground burrows with defined nurseries, sleeping areas and even bathrooms!
- Family members greet each other with what looks like a kiss, touching bared teeth together to recognize one another.

Doggone-it,
you're one smart pup!

Visit our Kids' Corner for more A+ animal facts and activities!
zooneugland.org/kids-corner

Cut along dotted lines

NEW ENGLAND
Franklin Park Zoo • Stone Zoo